SCAVENGER HUNT
Child-led learning resource
ABOUT

What better way to look back over your previous learning than a scavenger hunt? Crack the CLUES to choose the right learning resource and then scavenge through it to find the answer to the QUESTIONS.

You can give this a go on your own, but if there’s someone at home who can join you, why not work together? You could also connect with someone by telephone or video.

Are you ready? Let’s go!
GETTING STARTED

This scavenger hunt looks back over the following resources:

First, find all of the resources in one place here and take a look at the titles to warm up your brain:

economistfoundation.org/resources
CHALLENGE #1

CLUE:
What factors are important when people make lifestyle choices?

The resource you’re looking for explored different perspectives about food.

QUESTION:
According to Graham, the dairy farmer, which type of cows produce good milk?
CHALLENGE #2

CLUE:
Can you believe your eyes?

In this resource we unpicked how two photographs of the same event can give very different impressions.

QUESTION:
Who said:

“Photography is the only language that can be understood anywhere in the world.”
CHALLENGE #3

CLUE:
Only for kids?

In this resource we looked at what happens when politics and art collide.

QUESTION:
Which “hat” helps you to use humour to explain your point of view?
CHALLENGE #4

CLUE:
Are we pushing our planet to the brink?
In which resource would you find this photo?

QUESTION:
What was the population of Haiti in 2016?
CHALLENGE #5

CLUE:
What’s the purpose of a headline?

In this resource we thought about why newspapers think some stories are more important than others.

QUESTION:
Can you complete the headline?
“Brits Bask On Balmy _______”
CHALLENGE #6

CLUE:
What is the difference between wanting something and needing something?

This resource delved into the world of technology and how it affects our lives.

QUESTION:
Who is this?
CHALLENGE #7

CLUE:
How are men and women affected differently by coronavirus?

This resource gave you a chance to think about the people who live through pandemics.

QUESTION:
Name three countries that have female leaders.
CHALLENGE #8

CLUE:
It’s only a game...right?

In this resource we kicked around ideas about whether players should keep their opinions off the field.

QUESTION:
What sport does Colin Kaepernick play?
CHALLENGE #9

CLUE:
Should people be able to say whatever they want?

The resource you need this time helped to create conversations about what life might be like if we couldn’t say what we wanted to.

QUESTION:
Which letters did we try to ban?
(or should we say, “which ltt did w ty to bn?”)
CHALLENGE #10

CLUE:
Did we really land on the moon?

The last resource you’re looking for helped to explain why people sometimes believe news that isn’t true.

QUESTION:
What do you call someone who has been blamed for something that wasn’t their fault?
How many answers did you manage to find?

Did any of the resources get you thinking again? Have any of your opinions changed?